Enjoying a Slice of the Action

Burnley Express – April 1995

Burnley's Santa's takeaway is grabbing a "pizza" of the action. Staff at the Colne Road fast food shop made a huge pizza to celebrate the first ever national Pizza, Pasta and Italian Food Week which ends tomorrow.

The idea of the week was to promote Italian cuisine, which is growing in popularity each year. At Santa's customers were given free garlic bread and were offered the chance to enter a special draw with the top prize of a £1,600 holiday for two to Italy or one of the 75 Italian cookbooks.
